

The Constellations Declare the History of our Salvation and the Victory of our Savior...

The Bible tells us so...

A celestial globe showing various constellations connected by lines in red, green, and blue. A small Earth is visible at the center, with a yellow circle containing the number '3' positioned above it. Several orbital paths are depicted as curved lines in red, blue, and white.

“Libra”, The Sacrifice upon the Altar

In Akkad and Sumer, > 4,000 years ago, the months were called after the names of the signs of the Zodiac, the Sign of the 7th month (corresponding to “Libra”), was Tulku. The word ‘Tul’ means mound and the word ‘ku’ means sacred. Tulku means sacred mound; or, holy altar. The sign itself was called Bir, light.

In Arabic, “Libra” originally was Al Zubena, purchase, or redemption.

In Coptic, it was Lambadia, station of propitiation
(from Lam, graciousness, and badia, branch).

The Dragon (simplified Chinese: 龙; traditional Chinese: 龍) is one of the 12-year cycle of animals which appear in the Chinese zodiac related to the Chinese calendar. The Year of the Dragon is associated with the earthly branch symbol 辰.

It has been proposed by one academic researcher that the Dragon symbol is actually a scorpion and once symbolized the star Antares

Wills De Haas, 1881, Natl. Anthropol. Arch., Smithsonian.

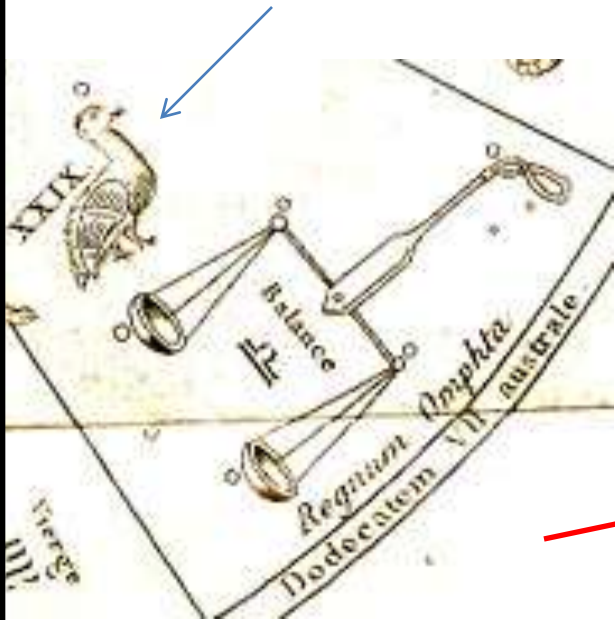

Warren Weiant, Jr., c. 1928.
 The Pawnee, Chickasaw, Ojibwe... linked it to the Great Serpent (water serpent, monster ground snake), and to a mythical Underwater Panther/Lynx (Lankford, G.E., Reachable Stars, U. Alabama Press, 2007:242).

On this bluff lies one of two great animal effigy mounds built by Ohio's prehistoric people. Shown here, Alligator Mound is a giant earthen sculpture of some four-footed animal with a long, curving tail. Archaeologists believe the animal is perhaps an opossum or a panther, but not an alligator. The earthwork is approximately 250 feet long, seventy-six feet wide, and four feet high. Like the Great Serpent Mound in Adams County, Ohio, Alligator Mound is not a burial mound. The Newark Earthworks, built by the Hopewell people between 100 B.C. and A.D. 400, are three miles to the east. Scholars do not know who built Alligator Mound, but it may be the work of the Hopewell.

The Greek Mythology kept the idea of 'The 12 Labors of Hercules', which in reality represents our Savior Jesus. One of his Labors' was the defeat of the multi-headed Hydra (the great red dragon with seven heads), which did bite him, causing his death.

Rev. 12:3-4

And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads...

...and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

In all ancient Zodiacs it's a goat with a fish's tail, in Denderah and Esneh, Egypt, it's called Hu-penius, the place of the sacrifice. In the Indian Zodiac it is a goat passant traversed by a fish. The Goat is bowing its head as though falling down in death. The right leg is folded underneath the body, and he seems unable to rise with the left.

The tail of the fish, on the other hand, is full of vigor and life. Heb., Gedi; Ar. Al Gedi, the kid or cut off. Lat. Capricorn, goat. It has 51 stars: 3 of 3rd magnitude, 3 of the 4th, etc. 5 are remarkable: ζ , γ , δ and ϵ , in the fishy tail. The star α , in the horn, is named Al Gedi, the kid or goat, β is in the head, δ is called Deneb Al Gedi, the sacrifice to come. Syr., Dabih, the sacrifice slain; Al Dabik and Al Dehabeh (Ar.) with same meaning; Ma'asad, the slaying; Sa'ad al Naschira, the record of the cutting off.

Results of Google Books for the ancient meaning of Capricorn as the suggestion of Büllinger makes little sense: How can Capricorn represent Jesus? 1. A goat in a N.T. sense represents rebellion. 2. It's a mythological hybrid with two natures. 3. Jesus is represented by the Lamb or Ram (Aries), while Capricorn is giving its back to him, as opposed to Aries.

in the gospels. In The Messiah before Jesus: The Suffering Servant of the Dead Sea Scrolls (Berkeley: University of California Press, 2000), Israel Knohl shows how in two Dead Sea Scroll hymns the goat-horned beast was the emperor ~~Augustus~~. He was the Capricorn (goat horn on his coin), "the false prophet" masquerading as Apollo, the "beast rising from the earth" with "two horns like a lamb" but "who spoke like a dragon" (Rev. 13.11). ~~Augustus~~ was the cruel beast who fooled worshipers and killed them.

the sidereal constellation (i.e. the actual stars) of Capricorn. In earlier times this constellation was known as the Gate of Death. Capricorn was also associated with an inverted pentagram; note the pentagram stands for the etheric body. Also Eliphas Levi connects the Goat (Capricorn) and the inverted pentagram with Baphomet!

No one is really sure about the mysterious origins of the modern god Baphomet. Some say his name comes from the Arabic abu-fihamet, meaning 'source of contrivances' and that he was a pre-Islamic Arabic god. Some say that his name comes from the Greek Baphe Metis, meaning 'immersed in cunning' and that he came out of the Greek Orphic mysteries. Still others claim that he was

Its modern name is Latin, Aquarius: The pourer forth of water [the liquid being swallowed by "Pisces Austrinus"].
